ucation, reported back the Senate bill authorizing Robert T. McEldowney, of Wetzel county, to leach achool without taking the test oath, and it was passed. Mr. Stevenson (Mr. Zinn'in'the chair) by leave introduced a bill authorizing Kenner B. Stephenson, of Woodcounty, to practice law without taking the test oath.

The bill and pelition accompanying it were referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Chapline introduced a joint resolution concerning the sale of Government properly at Harper's Ferry, in this State.

rules.

He also presented the petition of a number of citizens of Harper's Ferry and Bolivar townships, in Jefferson county, praying the passage of the above rasolution.

The Capital question came up as the result of the resul special order for 10% o'clock.

Mr. Burley moved that the question be indefinitely postponed, and in support of his motion, said the Senate had no time now to take into consideration anything but the Code, and there would be plenty of time to docate the would be plenty of time to locate the Capital at the regular session.

Mr. Farnsworth said that the people of the State complained because of the constant putting off of this vital question, and he thought the interests of the State demanded its immediate location.

Mr. Young said he had been in near half the counties of the State lately, and the people complained very bitterly of the tardiness of the Legislature in this the tardiness of the Legislature in this respect.

Mr. Chaptine said be was in favor of taking up the question now, and disposing of it.

Mr. Boreman and Mr. Workman thought there would be no time, during this session, to consider other matters than the Code.

Mr. Farnsworth then demanded the Yeas and Nays, on the question, and it was last:

HOUSE OF DELEGATE

Prayer by Rey. Adam Gregory, delegate from Webster.
Mr. Ferguson, of Cabell, from the Committee on Havision, reported back a number of chapters of the Code amended by the Senate. He also reported chapters 142 and 56 to 66 inclusive, being the residue of the Code. The Clerk reported a message from the Senate announcing the passage of certain chapters of the Code with amendments; a bill changing the name of the Agricultural College and Board of Visitors, and a faint resolution asking Congress to aid in the construction of the Monongabela Valley Raliroad. On motion of Mr. Ferguson, of Cabell, the resolution was referred to a special committee of three, consisting of Messrs.

the resolution was referred to a special committee of three consisting of Measrs. Ferguson, of Cabell, Pinnell and Boughner.
On motion of the same gentleman, the resolution in regard to the West Virginia Central Railway, was taken from the table and referred to the same committee. On motion of the same gentleman, committee.

On motion of the same gentleman, the chapters reported from the Squate as amended, were referred to the Committee on Revision.

Mr. Hinchman offered a resolution of inquiry for regard to the property of all widows in this State to the extent of $500; Adopted.

Mr. Boggess moved to take from the table the communication of the Auditor of State, in relation to the number of innatics in the Williamswerph Avylum, properly chargeable to the State of West Virginia. Agreed to.

The Clerk read the communication and on motion of Mr. Ferguson, of Cabell, it was referred to the Committee on Claims, &c.

The Senate bill changing the name of the Agricultural College, was read first time.

the Agricultural College, was read must time.

The Senate bill authorizing Robert T. McEldowney, of the county of Wetzel, to teach school without taking the test oath, coming up, Mr. Steere opposed the ordering of it to second reading. The bill was finally laid on the table on the motion of Mr. Fieming, of Harrison.

The Senate bill ratifying the proceedings of the Board of Supervisors of Mineral county, held under chapter 86 of the acts of 1868, was read third time, and passed.

Mr. Gregory moved to amend the latter chapter by increasing the penalty for swearing from one to two dollars.

Mr. Fergusdu, of Cabell, said the law as it stood was not very well executed anyhow and he yery much doubted whether 'It would be better executed if the gentleman from Webster's amendment should prevail. There were times at which it was absolutely necessary for a man to awear. He couldn't express his feelings in any other manner and he ought to have that privelege allowed him at a cost of one dollar. [Much Lianghter]

Mr. Gregory replied at length, saying that it was written in the word of God "thou shall not awear," and human laws ought to conform to the divine. He hoped the time might soon arrive when "swearing, chraing and getting drunk would be wiped from the statutes of history."

Notwithstanding the able effort of the gentleman from Webster, the majority of the House being confirmed blasphemers, &c., 'the amendment was lost.

A number of Chapters amended by.

A number of Chapters amended by the Senate, came up and the majority of the amendments were disagreed to There was one to Chapter 55, of the Board property to convey said pro-perty with the consent of a majority of the congregation, and as amended con-curred in.

The House also concurred in the Senate amendment to Chapter 63, changing the time at which persons changing the time at which persons may marry without consent of parent or guardian from 18 years, as the House had fixed it to 21 years.

The Senata amendment to chapter 66, of the separate property of married women, which, in lieu of allowing married women to sell and convey real estate without the consent of their hushands as fixed by the House, proposed a substitute permitting them to insure the lives of their husbands for the sole use and benefit of themselves and their children, was disagreed to, for the parpose, as explained by Mr. Ferguson, of Osbell, of committing the chapter to a Committee of Conference.

Adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

TESTIMONIALS:

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867. "I find Hoofland's a good foul, use the digestive orthe digestive orthe digestive ordenefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours, truly. Yours, truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD." Hon. James Thompson.

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvanic
PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1886.

"I consider "Hoofand's German Bitens" a VALVABLE MEDICINE in case of affacts of Indigestion or Dyspeptin. I can certify this from my experience of it.

Yours, with respect.

JAMES THOMPSON. From Mr. Chas. W. Hallar. . FREERICK CITY, Md., Sept. 11, 1865.
From a conviction of benefit arrived from the use of Dr. Hooffand's German Tonic, although in general averse to Patent Medicines, I cordially recommend the "Tonic" to all antiering with Dyspepsis, as no other medicine afforded me such prompt and permananent relief."
